To whom it may concern:

We are a small family living in Uniondale, N.Y. We have two children aged 2 and 17 and finding a "Good" Child Care Provider was a very scary task for us. Especially, since we are starting all over again with a little one and with that not knowing where to turn for care.

With my husband and I both working we needed to find a place where we knew that our daughter was in good hands.

Learn and Play has been our Child Care Provider since I went back to work in October, 2009. At first I was a bit skeptical because they are a new day care, not too many children had joined therefore not giving me any reference. Still I decided to enroll my daughter because of the great staff and the fact that the center is kept clean and has a very comfortable feel. If I were a kid, I would want to go there.

In closing I would like to state that I am very happy with my decision, my daughter Alexandria aka "Chiquis" is very happy to attend and I feel like she is learning a lot from the staff and of course the other children. To my surprise it seems that from one day to the next the place is getting full with new faces and it is very exciting to be a part of a growing effort.

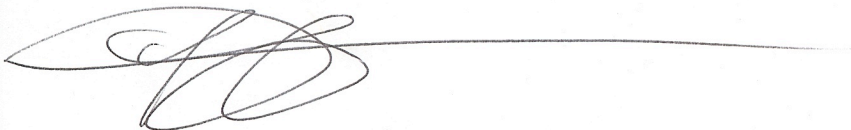

I would definitely recommend Learn and Play mostly because of their dedication to keeping children safe and happy.
